Volunteering Champion role profile

Volunteering Champions are students who promote community volunteering to other students. You'll be a point of contact for students in your assigned subject area who want to find out about volunteering opportunities. You'll work with staff to raise awareness of upcoming volunteering events and activities, sharing your enthusiasm for community volunteering with others!

Our expectations of you

As a Volunteering Champion, you'll:

- Attend four briefing sessions across the year to connect and network with other Volunteering Champions
- Promote key University volunteering events and take part yourself, including the Volunteering and Social Justice Fair (Semester 1) and Student Volunteering Week (Semester 2)
- Run an Instagram takeover on the @UoMVolunteering channel
- Organise a volunteering talk for your linked Peer Support scheme in one of their debriefs
- Run a volunteering event as part of a small group of Volunteering Champions eg an online volunteering session
- Champion volunteering within your subject area and maintain your awareness of University volunteering initiatives and events
- Provide feedback and ideas to the team to improve the role in the future

There are opportunities for you to:

- Develop a host of skills including: leadership, effective team working skills, time management, event management and communication skills
- Network with staff and students across the University
- Gain great CV and future application experience!

If you attend all the briefing sessions, run a volunteering talk and a volunteering event your role as a Volunteering Champion will be recognised on your Higher Education Achievement Report (HEAR) and will count as a Step Up & Lead role for the Stellify Award.

Your expectations of us

- We will provide full advice, guidance and training in your role
- We will provide ongoing support for networking opportunities for you to connect with other Volunteering Champions
- We will provide recognition and a certificate for your time and role
